

OCEAN HOME

St. Kitts Unveils New Belle Mont Farm at Kittitian Hill

BY ANDREA COLLINS

Be among the first to experience one of the most innovative and authentic vacation and lifestyle destinations in the Caribbean.

Kittitian Hill in St. Kitts will unveil the first chapter of its luxury sustainable development in December with the launch of Belle Mont Farm, a collection of guesthouses set within an organic farm where travelers will find a meaningful connection with food and nature.

Set on the north coast of St. Kitts amid 400 acres on the slopes of Mount Liamuiga, Belle Mont Farm will immerse guests in local culture and heritage, an organic farming community, and farm-to-table culinary experiences at The Kitchen restaurant & The Mill bar.

Kittitian Hill's organic farm will offer a world-class collection of exotic fruits and vegetables, with comfortable accommodations thoughtfully positioned in the surrounding landscape.

Designed by award-winning architect Bill Bensley, 84 guesthouses and seven, four-bedroom farmhouses will feature panoramic views of the Caribbean Sea and neighboring islands such as St. Barth's.

Overseen by General Manager Carlos Salazar, Belle Mont Farm amenities will include Irie Fields Golf Course and The Workshop fitness center. The famed Golden Lemon Inn at Dieppe Bay will also be part of the Kittitian Hill community, offering a seafood restaurant, beach club and bar.

Kittitian Hill is a $600 million hospitality and real estate destination anchored in the holistic philosophy of sustainability, authenticity and a belief that luxury is not signaled by personal possessions but rather by a commitment to local community and culture.

Future phases of the Kittitian Hill development will be unveiled in 2015, including:

- Mango Walk Spa, a secluded destination spa set in a forest of giant mango trees, which will offer indigenous treatments;
 - The Table restaurant and its adjoining Red Rum bar, which will boast the Caribbean's largest selection of rum;
 - Yaya Groves, a collection of three-and four-bedroom private villas available to rent or purchase;
 - The Village, a lively and colorful center which will be the cultural and community heartbeat of Kittitian Hill.
- The Signature Experience at Belle Mont Farm costs $2,250 per night, based on double occupancy, with an array of inclusions.

Reservations are now being accepted for stays starting on December 12, 2014. For more information, visit www.bellemontfarm.com.

