

Mrs D - Daily

Honeymoon Hotspots with Mr & Mrs Smith

Start your married life off with the ultimate holiday, somewhere different for some intense down time and togetherness, the perfect start to your marriage

We have picked our favourites from the wonderful collection of boutique hotels in the most stunning settings on earth.

Belle Mont Farm St Kitts and Nevis Mr & Mrs Smith (Check Availability)

Spread over a tropical, ocean-surveing perch on Kittitian Hill, Belle Mont Farm hotel in Saint Kitts is an everything-you-could-dream-up retreat for gastronomes, golfers and sun-worshippers alike. There's no need to fumble for your billfold at every turn – organic spa treatments, multi-course dining affairs and rounds of golf are all part of your stay.

Need To Know Rooms -84; including 7 farmhouses and 12 villas-Check-Out-12 noon. Earliest check-in, 3pm-Rates-Double rooms from £1493.58 ($2,300), excluding tax at 12 per cent-More Details-Rates include all meals and drinks, unlimited golf for two at Ine Fields, a $200 daily spa credit per room, a local evening out and transfers-Also-Look for the rustic 'Pick Me' signs on the mango, banana and other citrus trees dotting the grounds tempting you to pluck ripe fruit directly from the source. Or, venture out with chefs on a guided foraging excursion for herbs and produce for the day's meals. Prefer to leave the gathering to someone else? A crate of fresh produce will be delivered to your room every morning-Hotel Closed-The hotel is closed annually from 1 September to 15 October.

At The Hotel-400-acre organic farm, pool, beach club, tennis courts, golf course, fitness centre and spa. In rooms: iPod dock, iPad loaded with movies, movie screen and projector. minibar stocked with specialty wines, coffee and tea making service, bottled water and custom-made organic bath products-Our Favourite Rooms-If an outdoor shower sets your heart racing, then you'll truly be wooed by the al fresco porcelain claw foot soaking tub framed by vintage mirrors and set on the private wide-plank porch of the King Guesthouse. Of course, you could opt for that same sprawling ocean-facing suite with a private infinity pool for even more amorous aquatic endeavours-Poolside-With a generous number of sunloungers on deck, there's no need to wake up early to stake your spot beside the heated infinity-edge pool and hot tub. Although, with the flawless ocean-facing panoramas, you might race to be the first one out there to snap a few sunrise shots-Spa-Tucked behind a curtain of elephant-ear sized fronds in an ancient mango grove you'll discover the aptly named Mango Walk spa. Listen to monkeys chattering above you as you sink into a massage inspired by the vitamin-packed fruits and medicinal herbs all around you-Also-Despite some pebbly pathways and steep inclines on the grounds, there are wheelchair-accessible walkways and ramps throughout. Although not on property, transportation is provided to the hotel's beach club at the public beach-Eco-Friendly-Dedicated locavores take note: everything that passes your lips is either from the organic farm on-site or locally sourced from farmers, ranchers and fisherman on St Kitts or nearby islands. Green-friendly practices such as the use of solar power throughout the resort, green cleaning products and recycled paper products are in place. Bikes and electric golf carts on loan for exploring the lush grounds and golf greens.

Hotel Restaurant-The hotel has three, and all share a commitment to seasonal, sustainable cuisine by creating dishes with fruits and vegetables harvested from the organic farm on-site, catch-of-the day from local fisherman or meat from nearby farmers. International fare with a West African accent is on the daily-changing menu at the Kitchen, the hotel's main eatery. Located in the Great House, it commands uninterrupted views from the tiered terraces and the interiors are styled with relics from the island's days as a top rum and sugar producer with modern touches: lofted ceilings, exposed beams, a grand fireplace and sturdy communal farm tables. Pop by the Golden Lemon Beach Bar, a casual stand serving the day's catch and tropical cocktails at the hotel's private beach club. Don't miss the communal open-air dining experience set dramatically in the middle of the farm at The Terrace, where you'll feast on a 12-course tapas style tasting menu-Hotel Bar-Cool off post-sail with a rum-inflected cocktail at the Golden Lemon Beach Bar, a casual Caribbean-style shack at the beach club. The refinery-chic decor and design of the Mill pays homage to St Kitts days as 'Sugar City'. The only industry here today though is the mixing of specialty cocktails using herbs and fruit from the farm-Last Orders-The Kitchen is open for all meals 7am – 11pm, at the beach the Golden Lemon Beach Bar serves lunch and snacks 11am – 5pm and book a dinner reservation at the Terrace 7pm – 11pm-Room Service-Several golf carts have been outfitted as roving kitchens – hello, boutique food trucks – and chefs will motor over to your room on request to prepare snacks and small meals.