

50 best villas in the Caribbean

Article

Top spots

31. Villa Bica, Proctor Point
Published at 12:01AM, November 15 2014

From an ultra-plush pad just yards from a white sandy beach to the villa where Ian Fleming wrote James Bond novels

Post a comment
Print
Share via

Plan your perfect retirement and win a fantastic overnight getaway for two*

Click here

*Sponsored by The Times. Terms and conditions apply.

Behind the story:

Caitlin Moran: How I fell in love with Antigua

Sun, sea and zip-lines means this tropical island is as nice as Scotland or Wales. Almost.
Last updated at June 01 2014

Post a comment

Christmas at home or on a cruise? No contest

50. Belle Mont Farm St Kitts

Infinity pools and wooden deck with outdoor baths are among the features of the villas at Belle Mont Farm at Kittitian Hill. The farm grows many fruits and vegetables including mangos (of which there are more than 100 varieties) and avocados (of which there are 40). The villas are super-smart yet have a traditional appearance: shingle roofs, shuttered windows and carved balustrades. There's a nearby championship golf course.

Details: A week is from £2,360 for six (bellemontfarm.com); BA has flights to St Kitts from £628 return

Unless otherwise stated, prices are all on a self-catering basis