The 50 best holidays in the Caribbean

8. Belle Mont Farm, St Kitts

Probably one of the most interesting — and innovative — hotels in the Caribbean, Belle Mont Farm (bellemontfarm.com) is all about the farm-to-table concept. On a 400-acre former sugar plantation high in the hills, it grows its own coffee, hangs “pick me” signs on fruit trees and melds an organic farm with an 18-hole golf course (opening on November 15). The 84 rooms and villas are traditional in style, but there are plenty of gadgets, including home cinemas.
